GORGE MICHAEL Why I gave HAM! the chop!

GORGE MICHAEL ANSWERS OUR SEARCHING QUESTIONS ABOUT THE SPLIT THAT ROCKED THE WORLD OF PIGGY-POP.

Why did you pick this particular time to end your partnership with Andrew Pigley?

I wanted to quit while 'Ham!' was successful, well-loved and musically respected. But I couldn't wait that long, so I did it last week.

Did you have musical differences with Andrew?

Yes, I felt that I needed to work with musicians who were more useful than Andrew - which is why I've got Barney the Busker and his Comb-and-Paper Orchestra and Barney the Performing Seal on my new solo album.

Didn't you disagree about the band's image as well? I recall that you once accused Andrew of having a 'weight problem'.

Yes, if he saw food, he couldn't wait to eat it. But seriously, our main disagreement was over Andrew hogging the limelight. He'd stand at the front of the stage, and the fans wouldn't be able to see me, or the backing band, or the singers, or the amplifiers.

Isn't it unfair of you to give Andrew the sack so suddenly?

Not at all. When I met him, he was living in the gutter. It's thanks to me that he's left all that behind and is where he is today - on a nice comfy bench in the park, twiddling his thumbs.

Cult Shock Sensation 'I don't wear any underpants!'

Ian Asbury of that excellent band 'The Cult' talks to our very own Janice Pong about 'OINK!', 'The Cult' and pigs.

JANICE — O.K. far out. You dig 'OINK!' Oh Yeah! Dig it! Dig it! Cool!
IAN — Pardon!
JANICE — Sorry, getting carried away then. I believe you're a big fan of 'OINK!'!
IAN — Ah, I see! Yes, it's brilliant! The best thing since The Cult were formed.
JANICE — How did you get into 'OINK!'?
IAN — I didn't get into it. I got into my car or my bath but I read 'OINK!'!
JANICE — Sorry! What made you start reading 'OINK!'?
IAN — Well it's just so funny, and rude and disgusting. I mean, the humour's so off the wall! It's great, much better than the boring old Banno or Buster.
JANICE — Which are your favourite 'OINK!' characters?
IAN — I love Burp, he's so smelly and disgusting and Mr Bignose 'cause he's so daft.
JANICE — Any plans to include pigs on your record?
IAN — Sure. Why not. Anything's possible. But in the meantime I've stopped eating bacon butties.
JANICE — Far Out... on... I mean... er... What colour underpants do you wear?
IAN — I don't wear any.
JANICE — Oooh.

— What's the best way to break into pop music?
IAN — Through the back window. Har! Har!

JANICE — Well, Yes, er, Do you think there should be more pigs on Top of the Pops?

IAN — I thought it was already full of them.
JANICE — Yes, quite. Finally, Ian, do you have a message for Cult and 'OINK!' fans?
IAN — Yes! Keep buying and enjoying Cult records and OINK! See Ya!

Ian Asbury (pictured here) without his underpants!

CULT Sells Sanctuary (single)
Brill! One of my favourite all time singles! This one will have your trotters stonking! (If it doesn't, pigs can fly!)

CULT Rain (single)
There's nothing a pig likes better than rolling in the mud after a spot of rain. So I'm having this single piped into my sty for my mud bath. Um, can't wait!

CULT Revolution (single)
Revolution! This is what us pigs have been after for some time now. Play this record while you're chasing your local butcher out of town. Pig Power! and another bit of crackin' from 'The Cult'.
